Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)*(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
  - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
  - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

Introduction

Black Hills Corp. (NYSE: BKH) is a customer-focused, growth-oriented utility company with a tradition of improving life with energy and a vision to be the energy partner of choice. Based in Rapid City, South Dakota, the company serves 1.3 million natural gas and electric utility customers in eight states: Arkansas, Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, South Dakota and Wyoming. More information is available at www.blackhillscorp.com, www.blackhillscorp.com/corporateresponsibility and www.blackhillsenergy.com.

Black Hills Corporation through its wholly owned subsidiary Cheyenne Light, Fuel and Power Company is soliciting proposals from potential Blockchain Interruptible Service (“BCIS”) customers. Cheyenne Light, Fuel and Power Company dba Black Hills Energy (“Cheyenne Light”) serves over 43,000 electric customers in Cheyenne, Wyoming and the surrounding vicinity.

This document is the RFP and serves as written application to Cheyenne Light for service under its BCIS Tariff. This RFP is for respondents to propose pricing and terms related to taking service under a to be negotiated BCIS agreement. Cheyenne Light desires to enter into one or more BCIS agreement(s) as a result of this RFP. However, Cheyenne Light may require additional information, and Cheyenne Light and the applying customer may, at the sole discretion of either party, cease negotiation of rates and terms and conditions of service under the BCIS Tariff. If the parties agree through negotiations to electric service through the BCIS Tariff, an Agreement will be executed. The electric service under the BCIS Tariff is not applicable to temporary, standby, supplementary, emergency, resale, shared or incidental purposes.

The agreement for service under the BCIS tariff must include:

1. Electric service is for new interruptible load expected to be 10,000 kW or greater;
2. A term of at least two (2) years;
3. Specific pricing for all electricity purchased, with the pricing terms being subject to renegotiation at least every three (3) years;
4. Negotiated service interruption provisions (size of interruptible load, notice of planned interruption, duration of interruption, and maximum hours of interruption per year);
5. Other requirements as defined in the BCIS tariff (see appendix).

Cheyenne Light will give preference to bids with the highest price, accept high curtailment/interruptible hours and are in desirable locations. The Company will also factor in the bidder’s credit quality and the ability for the bidder to transact quickly.

All system upgrade or system interconnection costs will be borne by the respondent. Cheyenne Light will endeavor to provide an estimate to the short-listed bidders of the expected costs to interconnect to its facilities during the screening process and the notice to the short-listed bidders.

All proposals received will be handled confidentially.

Bid Submittal

Proposal Submissions

Proposals must be submitted in the complete name of the party expecting to execute any resulting BCIS Agreement with Cheyenne Light. The proposal must be executed by a person who is duly authorized to bind the respondent to a contract.

Bidders can submit alternate proposals for price, location, or curtailable hours. However, please submit a complete package for each alternative location proposed. If alternate pricing and/or curtailable hours are proposed from the same location, please submit a new Section 3-Pricing for each proposal.

All proposals submitted in response to this RFP must be received by Cheyenne Light no later than 5:00 pm MDT on the due date at BCIS\_RFP@blackhillscorp.com. To ensure receipt, please send e-mails from a United States service provider.

Questions

Cheyenne Light will accept questions via email to BCIS\_RFP@blackhillscorp.com. Cheyenne Light requests that all questions concerning this RFP be submitted in writing at the above address. Answers will be provided through email correspondence to and from this address only. Written questions will be accepted by Cheyenne Light through September 3rd.

Required attachments:

All bids must include the entity's certificate of good standing and most recent financial statements. If no financial statements exist, the bidder must detail its financial condition or show other means to fund the project. Additionally, please provide details regarding credit support and preference for form of credit support (e.g. letter of credit). Bids without any financial detail regarding the bidder's ability to fund the project or support credit requirements will not be considered.

With each proposal Cheyenne Light will require all parties to sign the Non-disclosure Agreement, contained in Appendix - Non-disclosure Agreement to this RFP. Cheyenne Light will sign and execute the Non-disclosure Agreement upon receipt from each Respondent. Cheyenne Light will use commercially reasonable efforts, in a manner consistent with the Non-disclosure Agreement, to protect any claimed proprietary and confidential information contained in a proposal.

Project's desired start date:

Project's expected megawatts of demand at start, schedule of increase over time, and final demand at project completion:

Project's site preparation: (permitting requirements complete (if applicable), has land been acquired, is a lease option preferred?)

Does the bidding entity currently have cryptocurrency mining operations? If yes, how many megawatts?

Bid Form - Section 4 - Pricing Proposal

Cheyenne Light will entertain proposals for fixed price supply. In the tables below please provide the proposed total or all-in pricing the bidder is willing to pay under a BCIS Agreement. Priority will be placed on price as well as on the number of curtailment hours.

As required in the tariff, the BCIS Agreement requires a bid reopener after three years. However, the bidder may propose pricing and terms beyond that time.

Please complete the table below with the proposed bid (add rows or columns as necessary). It should be completed in cents per kilowatt hour.

Term	Total Bid
Example (Jan-Dec 2022)	$.0XX/kwh
Example (Jan-Dec 2023)

Please list the maximum hours the project would be willing to be curtailed annually due to uneconomic market energy prices. Cheyenne Light retains the right to curtail load for system safety and integrity beyond the hours indicated below as necessary.

XXX hours

Is the bidder willing to pay a premium during hours in which power supply cost exceeds the bid price to avoid being curtailed? (Yes/No)

Is the bidder interested in off-peak only energy or tiered pricing during on-peak vs off-peak hours? If so please explain further.

Please indicate any other information related to bid pricing you wish to share with Cheyenne Light for your bid:

Project funding and credit support:

Cheyenne Light will assess the bidders' ability to fund the project and bidders' credit quality. At a minimum, the bidder can expect to post credit support equal to multiple months of the project's electric utility bill. Bidders with less credit history or without excellent credit can expect to provide more credit support.

Please detail proposed project funding: (Is funding secured or in process?)

Please detail your proposed credit support for this bid:

APPLICABILITY

This tariff is applicable to new Customer interruptible load, interconnected with the Company's system, expected to be 10,000 kW or greater. Interruptions will be at the Company's discretion. Each new customer will have entered into a Blockchain Interruptible Service Agreement ("Agreement") with the Company.

ELIGIBILITY

Customers requesting Blockchain Interruptible Service ("BCIS") will be considered upon written application to the Company. Upon receipt of the customer's written application and such additional information as the Company may require, the Company and the applying customer may, at the sole discretion of either party, commence negotiation of rates and terms and conditions of service under this BCIS tariff. If the parties agree through negotiations to electric service through this BCIS tariff, an Agreement will be executed. The electric service under this tariff is not applicable to temporary, standby, supplementary, emergency, resale, shared or incidental purposes.

CONTRACT

As a condition to be eligible for this tariff, the customer is required to enter into an Agreement for service under this tariff. The Agreement shall be filed, with a request for confidentiality protections, with the Public Service Commission of Wyoming ("Commission") prior to the customer being billed under the Agreement.

The Agreement shall be in accordance with the provisions of this BCIS tariff and at a minimum shall include:

1. Electric service is for new interruptible load expected to be 10,000 kW or greater;
2. A term of at least two (2) years;
3. Specific pricing for all electricity purchased, with the pricing terms being subject to renegotiation at least every three (3) years;
4. Identification of Customer and Company costs for any required new electric infrastructure;
5. Details specifying how service will be interrupted by the Company;
6. Negotiated service interruption provisions (size of interruptible load, notice of planned interruption, duration of interruption, and maximum hours of interruption per year) ;
7. BCIS customers that fail to interrupt service as required by the Agreement shall be responsible for all costs incurred by the Company due to such failure;
8. A release of liability of the Company for any losses or damages, including consequential damages, caused by or resulting from any interruption of service;

9. Revenue expected to be received under the Agreement during its term must exceed the anticipated costs to the Company of its performance under the Agreement;
10. Terms and conditions of service shall be those contained in the Agreement; and
11. Customer shall not be eligible for any discounts or service conditions except as provided for in the Agreement.

MONTHLY RATE

All charges for service under this tariff shall be in accordance with the Agreement entered into between the Company and the Customer.

POWER COST ADJUSTMENT

Customers receiving service under this tariff shall not participate in the Power Cost Adjustment (PCA) to the extent of service received under this tariff schedule.

PAYMENT

Net monthly bills are due and payable twenty days from the date of the bill, and after that date the account becomes delinquent. A late payment charge of 1.5% on the undisputed unpaid balance shall apply to delinquent accounts. Discontinuance of service can occur pursuant to the Rules and Regulations, Sheet No. R16.

COST AND BENEFIT ASSIGNMENT

The Company assumes all financial and operational risks associated with BCIS, and as such, the costs and benefits to the Company and its other retail customers shall be distributed as follows:

- All BCIS power supply costs and any associated revenues shall be separately identified in the books and records of the Company and shall be solely the responsibility of the Company. These costs and revenues will be removed from the Company's Power Cost Adjustment ("PCA") calculation. All directly assigned power costs and related kWh shall be excluded when determining the annual PCA rate;
- All third party transmission charges attributable to the BCIS customer's electric requirements shall be the responsibility of the Company. These costs will be recorded on the Company's books in FERC Account 565 and removed from the Company's PCA calculation;
- When the BCIS customer is served through use of the Company's local transmission system (115 kV and above) customers will receive a benefit per megawatt hour of energy served under Agreements entered into pursuant to this tariff through the BCIS Transmission Credit component of the BCIS Customer Credit Adjustment Tariff ("BCCA"). ;
- The Company shall be responsible for corporate overhead expense as is allocated to BCIS customers utilizing the then current Cost Allocation Manuals (CAM). These identified expenses will be removed from any annual earnings reports and the retail cost of service in any Company rate proceedings. A portion of these expenses will be included in the BCIS Corporate Overhead Credit component of the BCCA; and
- In addition, retail electric customers shall receive a customer benefit per megawatt hour of energy served under Agreements entered into pursuant to this tariff through the BCIS Customer Benefit Credit component of the BCCA..

The customer benefits outlined herein and in the BCCA Tariff shall be the exclusive benefits provided to other retail customers as a result of the Company providing BCIS service. Any revenues and expenses associated with BCIS service shall be removed from the Company's normalized earnings reports, rate of return calculations, and the retail cost of service in any Company rate proceedings. Any profits or losses resulting from BCIS service shall inure to and be the responsibility of the Company.

DEMAND SIDE MANAGEMENT

Demand Side Management (DSM) Surcharge shall not be applicable to Blockchain Interruptible Service Customers.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Service supplied under this schedule is subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Company's Rules and Regulations on file with the Public Service Commission of Wyoming unless modified by the Agreement.

CREDIT SUPPORT

The Company may require from the BCIS customer a deposit or other credit support as outlined in the Agreement. The credit support shall not be considered as an advance payment of bills for service to be rendered, but shall be held as security for payment of obligations incurred on behalf of the customer.

under the laws of the state of [INSERT STATE OF ORGANIZATION] having a place of business at (“ ”), and Cheyenne Light, Fuel and Power Company, a company having a place of business at 7001 Mt. Rushmore Rd., Rapid City, SD 57702, and its affiliates and subsidiaries (“Black Hills”). Black Hills and shall collectively be referred to as the “Parties”.

RECITALS

A. The Parties have expressed a desire to engage in discussions regarding a Blockchain Interruptible Service Agreement (the “Transaction”).

B. In order to explore this relationship, it will be necessary for the Parties to disclose certain Confidential Information (as hereinafter defined) to each other.

AGREEMENT

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the recitals, the mutual promises and covenants made herein, with the intent to be legally bound hereby, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Confidential Information. As used in this Agreement, the term “Confidential Information” includes all written information, data, correspondence or other tangible materials, and information disclosed orally, electronically or in any other intangible form by one party to the other. Confidential Information shall include all information as described herein, whether or not it is marked Confidential or Proprietary.

Each party shall have the right to determine, in its sole judgment, what information it will provide to the other. Confidential Information shall not include the following:

- (a) information which at the time of disclosure by a Party (the “Disclosing Party”) is already public or becomes available to the public through no act or omission of the Party receiving such information (the “Receiving Party”);
- (b) information which was in the Receiving Party’s possession prior to receipt from the Disclosing Party;
- (c) information which is lawfully received independently from a third party who, to the Receiving Party’s knowledge, is free to disclose such information to the Receiving Party; or
- (d) information which is independently developed by or on behalf of Receiving Party without use of any Confidential Information.

Without the other party's prior written consent, the Parties and their directors, officers, employees, consultants and advisors shall not disclose to any person or entity either the fact that discussions or negotiations are taking place concerning the Transaction between the Parties or any of the terms, conditions or other facts with respect to any such Transaction, including the status thereof.

2. Disclosure and Use of Confidential Information. For a period of three (3) years from the Effective Date of this Agreement, the Parties agree:

- (a) to hold in confidence and not to disclose to any third party the Confidential Information, employing the same degree of care to keep such Confidential Information confidential as it employs with respect to its own information of like importance, but in no event less than reasonable care.
- (b) not to use the Confidential Information for any purpose other than in connection with the Transaction. The Parties may disclose Confidential Information on a need to know basis to their consultants and advisors and employees who have a need to know such information for purposes of such evaluation, provided that such disclosures are made under confidentiality requirements consistent with those set forth in this Agreement.
- (c) With respect to Confidential Information jointly generated by the Parties, each Party shall be deemed to be the Receiving Party for purposes of this Section 2.

3. Required Disclosure. If compelled by a requirement of a government agency, a court, or by law or discovery to disclose any of the Confidential Information, the party ordered to disclose the information shall make reasonable efforts to resist disclosure and shall notify the other party in writing prior to making any disclosure in order to provide the party whose information may be disclosed a reasonable opportunity to either waive any objection to such disclosure or request a remedy from the appropriate authority. The Parties will reasonably cooperate with each other in efforts to obtain such a remedy. If the party whose information may be disclosed waives its objections or is unsuccessful in its request for a remedy or fails to make such a request, the party compelled to disclose information will furnish only that portion of the Confidential Information that is legally required.

4. Return of Documents. The Parties may elect at any time to terminate further access to Confidential Information. The party in possession of Confidential information agrees to return, or destroy if so requested, any and all Confidential Information as well as any other information disclosed upon request, including all originals, copies or any other form of said material, without retaining any copy or duplicate thereof, and shall promptly destroy any and all translations, notes and other written, printed, computer based or readable or other material or information derived from the Confidential Information, without retaining any copy or duplicate thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the party in possession of Confidential Information will not have an obligation to return or destroy Confidential Information stored in electronic backup systems, provided that such systems are not used to access such Confidential Information and the terms of this Agreement will continue to apply to such Confidential Information stored in electronic backup systems.

5. No Further Obligations. Nothing herein shall obligate either party to disclose to or receive from the other party any particular information. Neither of the Parties has an obligation under this Agreement to purchase any service or item from the other party. The Parties shall not be obligated to compensate each other for the use of any information disclosed under this Agreement. acknowledges that Black Hills may explore opportunities similar to the Transaction with other companies that may be competitors of .

6. Remedies. The Parties acknowledge that remedies at law may be inadequate to protect against any actual or threatened breach of this Agreement, and, without prejudice to any other rights and remedies otherwise available, the Parties agree to the granting of injunctive relief without proof of actual damages. In the event of litigation relating to this Agreement, if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that this Agreement has been breached, then the party at fault will reimburse the other party for its costs and expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred in connection with all such litigation.

7. No Other Rights or License. Disclosure of any information under this Agreement shall not be construed as granting, directly or by implication, any license under any United States or foreign patent, patent application or copyright, or any other intellectual proprietary rights; nor shall this Agreement be construed as creating any agency or partnership relationship between the Parties.

8. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. NEITHER PARTY NOR ANY OF ITS RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES AND SUBSIDIARIES SHALL BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER OR ANY THIRD PARTY FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES RELATED TO OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT EVEN IF THE PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES AND REGARDLESS OF WHAT LEGAL OR EQUITABLE THEORY MAY BE ASSERTED, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY CONTRACT, NEGLIGENCE, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR ANY OTHER LEGAL OR EQUITABLE THEORY.

9. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated by either party upon three days prior written notice to the other party; provided, however, that notwithstanding any termination hereof, the Parties obligations under this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect with respect to Confidential Information disclosed prior to such termination for three (3) years after the effective date of such termination.

10. Non-Solicitation. During the term of the Agreement, and for a period of two (2) years after the active business relationship ends or is terminated for any reason, each party agrees that it will not directly or indirectly, solicit, hire, or retain for employment or contract services, any current employee of the other party or any employee who has been employed by the other party at any time during the term of the Agreement, and who became known to the hiring party in connection with its consideration of the Transaction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the hiring party shall not be precluded from hiring any such employee who: (a) initiates discussions regarding such employment without any direct or indirect solicitation by the hiring party; (b) is referred to the hiring party by search firms, employment agencies or other similar entities provided that such entities have not been specifically instructed by the hiring party to solicit the employees of the other party or its affiliates or (c) has been terminated by the other party prior to commencement of employment discussions between the hiring party and such employee.

11. Miscellaneous. The Parties represent and warrant that they have the right to disclose the information disclosed under this Agreement for the purpose set forth herein. The Parties shall not disclose any information that is confidential or otherwise restricted by reason of any oral, written or implied agreement or other understanding they have with any third party. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, representations and statements, whether oral or written, between the Parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. The terms of this Agreement may not be changed except by subsequent written agreement duly executed by an authorized representative of each of the Parties. This Agreement may not be assigned by either party without the prior written consent of the other party, shall be binding upon the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of and shall be enforceable by the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns. The invalidity in whole or in any part of this Agreement does not affect the validity of the remainder of the Agreement. Notices given under this Agreement shall be in writing and delivered by first class, certified mail to each signatory at the addresses identified herein, unless changed by written notice, with a copy to Black Hills' General Counsel. This Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the state of Wyoming without regard to its conflicts of laws principles. The venue for any dispute arising hereunder shall be in state or federal courts located within the state of Wyoming. This Agreement may be executed by facsimile and in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original, and all of which when taken together, shall be deemed to constitute one and the same agreement.

The undersigned have caused this Agreement to be duly effective as of the date first set forth above.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)*(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
  - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
  - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)*(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
  - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
  - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.
